

BYLAWS OF THE
AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY
DEPARTMENT OF CALIFORNIA

ARTICLE I

Department Organization

Section 1. The American Legion Auxiliary, Department of California, is chartered by the National Executive Committee of the American Legion Auxiliary and is comprised of Districts and Units attached to Posts of The American Legion and all nonaffiliated Unit members (Headquarters Unit 1000) within the state of California. (2018)

The Department of California charter is signed by the National President and the National Secretary.

Section 2. The Department of California American Legion Auxiliary shall have the authority to create intermediate bodies between the Units and Department to act as a liaison between such organizations and for the purpose of promoting the programs of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Section 3. The Department shall have authority to create and charter new Units and the Department will act as the liaison between such organizations and the National Organization for the purpose of promoting the programs of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The Department shall also have authority to create and charter intermediate bodies (Districts) between the Units and Department to act as a liaison between such organization and the purpose of promoting the programs of the American Legion Auxiliary. An intermediate body shall be administratively subject to the Department and totally under Department jurisdiction. The Department Executive Committee shall have the authority to set forth responsibilities and limits of all intermediate bodies. In no event shall these responsibilities established by the Department Executive Committee usurp the prerogatives of the National Organization, Departments, and Units. (2018)

Section 4. The Department Executive Committee shall define the authority of the Districts.

- a. The Department of California, American Legion Auxiliary, shall automatically conform to the redistricting plans of The American Legion as to Districts.

Section 5. Units in good standing and holding regular meeting shall not lose their membership in the Department because the Post to which they were attached when chartered was disbanded.

Section 6. Each Unit shall maintain a minimum membership of ten Senior members.

Section 7. Each unit shall adopt the Unit Constitution and Bylaws for its government as prescribed by the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of California. Units should adopt such standing rules for its government and such regulations as are proper and which do not conflict with the Constitution, Bylaws and Standing Rules of the National and Department organizations.

Section 8. Subsidiary organizations in the Department of California shall be the County Councils, California Girls State Alumnae Association, and all other groups as may be organized under the name and jurisdiction of the Department of California.

Section 9. The fiscal year of the American Legion Auxiliary shall be July 1st to June 30th. The legislative year shall be from Department Convention to Department Convention.

Section 10. All persons handling funds of the Department shall be bonded by a reputable, solvent bonding and surety company; or shall be covered by fidelity-crime insurance in an adequate amount as determined by the Department Audit Committee, Department Finance Committee, and/or Department Executive Committee.

ARTICLE II

NATIONAL CONVENTION

Section 1. The Department Convention shall elect annually five (5) delegates for charter and one (1) for each one thousand five hundred (1,500) members or major fraction thereof, and one (1) alternate for each delegate to the National Convention. Election shall be by ballot when the number of candidates exceeds the number designated. A plurality vote shall elect.

(2019)

ARTICLE XI

Suspension, Cancellation and Revocation of Charters

Section 1. All charters granted by the American Legion Auxiliary are hereby ratified and confirmed.

Unit Charters

Section 1. In addition to the revocation as provided in the National Constitution, charters may be canceled, suspended, or a Unit placed on probation. The Department Executive Committee may order the suspension of a charter for a period not to exceed beyond the closing of the next succeeding Department Convention, as a disciplinary measure, or pending action relative to final revocation, providing notice of such proposed action has been sent to the Unit from Department Headquarters, bearing the signature of the Department President, at least thirty (30) days prior to the Department Executive Committee meeting, and an opportunity is given for a hearing before action is taken. During the suspension of a charter, Department may provide for the government and administration of the Unit.

- a. Prior to suspension, a Unit may be placed on probation by the Department Executive Committee, or President, under the supervision of a committee of three (3), one (1) of whom shall be the District President, and two (2) appointed by the Department President. The Department Office shall notify the Unit immediately following the date of such probation. During probationary period, Unit shall be expected to continue all programs they have previously followed and shall be accountable to the Committee for a proper report when requested.

Section 2. The Department Executive Committee may suspend, cancel or revoke Unit charters for good cause to it appearing.

Section 3. Any Unit that a) fails to meet the obligations imposed upon it by the governing documents, policies, or requirements of the National Organization or Department of California, or b) ceases to function as an American Legion Auxiliary Unit from one Department Convention to the next, shall surrender its charter at the direction of the Department President. When a Unit so directed to surrender its charter fails to do so, the Department Executive Committee may take immediate steps to revoke the charter.

Section 4. An American Legion Auxiliary Unit whose charter has been suspended, cancelled, or revoked by the Department may appeal the decision of the Department Executive Committee to the National Executive Committee, as provided in the Standing Rules. See National Standing Rules in the method of procedure and appeal.

Section 5. Upon suspension of an American Legion Auxiliary Unit charter, the Department Executive Committee is authorized, empowered and directed, by and through its duly authorized agents, to take possession, custody and control of all records, assets, property, and belongings of the Unit and to provide for the governance and administration of the Unit during said suspension.

Section 6. With regard to suspensions, cancellations, and revocations of Unit charters, in no event shall the Department organization be required to assume any financial obligation with regard to records, assets, property, and belongings.

Section 7. Cancellation of a Unit charter shall be in order when two (2) or more Units merge, when a Unit ceases to function, or under such other conditions as might make such action necessary within the Department. In the event a Unit charter is canceled or revoked without the consent of such Unit, it shall have the right to appeal to the Department Executive Committee as provided in the Standing Rules.

Section 8. The National Executive Committee may prescribe rules of procedures to be followed in the revocation, suspension or cancellation of Unit charters, with full power from time to time to revise or amend such rules, provided, however, that until such rules have been adopted the procedure now in existence shall be applicable. All rules and procedures shall be in accordance with the principals of due process of law.

Section 9. Method of Procedure in Notice of Appeal – See National Standing Rules.

ARTICLE XII

Parliamentary Authority

Section 1. The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern this organization in all cases in which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with applicable state and city statutes, the Department Constitution and Bylaws, Standing and Special Rules.

ARTICLE XIII

Amendments

Section 1. Refer to Department Constitution, Article VII, for method of amendment of Department Bylaws.

ARTICLE IX

Authority

The authority under which all Districts, Units, subsidiaries, and affiliated entities of the American Legion Auxiliary shall function is vested in this Department Constitution & Bylaws and such Standing Rules as have been duly adopted. Any provision of any District or Unit Constitution or Bylaws, any subsidiary, intermediate body, or affiliated entity's bylaws, or any regulation of any District, Unit, subsidiary, intermediate body, or affiliated entity in conflict with the foregoing authority shall be void.
